Today's Note to the Players From Jan

If you have been seeing & hearing your screenmate and all at once can't any more, the first thing to do is click on the "reload" button to the right of your name. That's the arrow in a circle. It will restart the video feed and sometimes that clears things up. You can also ask your screenmate to click on that button. In fact, that's a good thing to do any time there seems to be a problem. It only takes a moment and often fixes things.

When someone makes an explanation or adds to an explanation after they have bid, the program automatically puts in a time-stamp that looks like [5s] meaning 5 seconds after the bid. In rare instances that may look as if it's part of an explanation and means 5 spades - it isn't & doesn't.

If you see an explanation that seems to be a bunch of suit symbols with nothing more, you should ask about it - sometimes people click on the suit symbol buttons in error and don't notice that they have put a row of symbols in the explanation box. Also, when you're making a bid, it can't hurt to look at the "explain bid here" box before clicking on the bid to make sure you didn't accidentally put something in the box.

Kibitzing on VuGraph...

There will be delayed kibitzing for all of the JLall1 event.

To kibitz, go to <https://kibitz.realbridge.online/>, enter your name and click on Log In. That will take you to a screen where you can select the event to kibitz (we do not know whether there will be events with delayed kibitzing other than the JLall1 running concurrently).

After you select Kibitz JLall Online Teams #1, you will be taken to a lobby where you will see a list of tables on the left and a chat box and list of people in the lobby on the right. The table listing shows the team & player names at each table, as well as the board and trick that table is on (that's in the middle of the table, immediately under the table number). Click on a table to kibitz it.

At the table, you will see a hand diagram, and the bidding and play as it happens. You will not hear or see the players.

There is a chat window on the right of the screen (if your browser window isn't large enough to show it, you can click on the "chat" icon immediately above the UNDO button to open the chat window. For now, anyone can type chat into the chat window. We may have designated commentators for late stages of the event.

Some things you can do to get more information:

If there is an asterisk next to a bid, that means it was Alerted or Explained. Click on the bid to see the explanation if there was one.

-- "Rewind" the play using the slider underneath the "table" with hand diagram. just move the vertical handle on the slider to the left to go to earlier tricks.

-- Click on the "Scores" button to the left of the South player's name, you will get a scorecard for the match so far. You can use this to get lots of information:

----Click on a board number to see the hand record and results at all of the tables.

----You can also click on a number in a yellow box to get to the hand record from some screens.

----In the hand record screen, click on a result to see the bidding and play at a specific table.

--In the upper left corner:

----Click on the yellow box with 4 little boxes to get the match scores for all the matches (that will be IMPs and will not include scores from previous rounds).

----Click on the yellow box with 3 bulleted lines to get Cross-IMPs for the pairs (that will be just for this match).

The Scores information is also available in the lobby using the button at the upper right, in case you want to check on scores before deciding which table to watch.

Watching online,
Even delayed,
Is the best way to see
How a hand's bid and played!

It always seems strange when looking at results and noting that five pairs bid to slam in diamonds, while two pairs rested at the level of TWO... one in 2D and one in 2NT!

24 pairs played in 3NT making 4 or 5.

One pair played in 3CX going -800.

6D is not a bad contract... also not a good contract. It requires some luck.

If there are no losers in the trump suit, declarer can concede a heart and score 12 tricks.

If the heart finesse works, declarer can afford one trump loser and still bring in the slam by ruffing one heart in dummy.

As the cards lie, all declarers in slam went light one trick with the D:KJ over the AQ.

It looks like 6D could actually succeed if declarer plays for the strip and endplay... however, that is not realistic without self-kibitzing. For this to work, South would need to be four/triple three. Declarer could then strip the side suits, taking the heart finesse and ruffing one spade and two clubs in hand. Then, with a three card end position, South holding his three trump, declarer could exit a small diamond. Bridge is so easy double dummy!

In reality, most declarers won the opening lead, took the heart finesse either at trick one or trick two, and finessed the diamond queen... down one.

After testing hearts, only Mark Lair tried the safety play in the diamond suit by playing a diamond to the ace and leading toward the queen at a later point in the hand.

Some Suggestions For Dining at Home Between Sessions! Pandemic Pleasures...

Bacon and Swiss Chicken Sandwiches

- 1 tablespoon Dijon mustard
- 1 tablespoon honey
- 4 boneless skinless chicken breast halves (4 ounces each)
- 1/2 teaspoon Montreal steak seasoning
- 4 slices Swiss cheese
- 4 whole wheat hamburger buns, split
- 2 bacon strips, cooked and crumbled
- Lettuce leaves and tomato slices, optional

Directions

- In a small bowl, mix mayonnaise, mustard and honey. Pound chicken with a meat mallet to 1/2-in. thickness. Sprinkle chicken with steak seasoning. Grill chicken, covered, over medium heat or broil 4 in. from heat until a thermometer reads 165°, 4-6 minutes on each side Top with cheese during the last 1 minute of cooking.
- Grill buns over medium heat, cut side down, until toasted, 30-60 seconds. Serve chicken on buns with bacon, mayonnaise mixture and, if desired, lettuce and tomato.

Nutrition Facts

1 sandwich: 410 calories, 17g fat (6g saturated fat), 91mg cholesterol, 667mg sodium, 29g carbohydrate (9g sugars, 3g fiber), 34g protein. Diabetic Exchanges: 4 lean meat, 2 starch, 2 fat.

Ingredients

- 3 tablespoons mayonnaise
- 4-1/2 teaspoons grated Parmesan cheese
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1/2 teaspoon prepared pesto
- 1/4 teaspoon grated lemon zest
- Dash pepper
- 4 slices sourdough bread
- 1/4 pound sliced rotisserie chicken
- 4 slices ready-to-serve fully cooked bacon
- 2 slices smoked part-skim mozzarella cheese
- 2 slices red onion, separated into rings
- 4 slices tomato
- 2 tablespoons butter, melted

Rotisserie Chicken Panini

Directions

- In a small bowl, combine the first six ingredients; spread half over two bread slices. Layer with chicken, bacon, mozzarella cheese, onion and tomato. Spread remaining mayonnaise mixture over remaining bread slices; place over top. Brush outsides of sandwiches with butter.
- Cook on a panini maker or indoor grill until bread is browned and cheese is melted, 3-4 minutes.

Tips

Go for freshly squeezed lemon juice when preparing this summery sandwich. Bottled lemon juice, which is from concentrate, won't provide the same bright, fresh flavor. Buy some lemons to get the job done.

In Europe, Parmigiano-Reggiano and Parmesan are considered the same cheese. But in the U.S., Parmesan is a generic term that may not come from Italy's Parmigiano-Reggiano region. Using the authentic Italian cheese (in a lesser amount than the original's 1/2 cup) ensures a cheesy richness in the makeover with less fat and calories.

Logic Puzzle

With spring in the air, everyone's starting to think about spring clean-up so Jeff spent all week after school and all weekend doing odd jobs around the neighborhood to earn some spending money. He tilled gardens, raked leaves, cleaned up tree limbs, pruned hedges, and even spent one afternoon babysitting! Each day he worked for a different neighbor on a different chore. He charged each neighbor a reasonable rate for his work, but sometimes he got tips too. By the end of the week, he was quite pleased with the amount that he'd earned and each of the neighbors was pleased with the quality of work that he'd done. Determine the last name of each neighbor, what chore Jeff completed for each neighbor, what day of the week Jeff worked for each neighbor, how long each task took him (2 to 4 hours), and how much he earned for each task ($20 to $36).

Last Name	Task	Day of Week	Time Taken	Money Earned
Mrs. Agnew
Mr. Compton
Mrs. Fields
Mr. Numen
Mr. Summer
-----	babysitting	Wednesday	2 hours	$20
-----	garden tilling	Thursday	2-1/2 hours	$24
-----	hedge pruning	Friday	3 hours	$28
-----	raking leaves	Saturday	3-1/2 hours	$32
-----	tree limb removal	Sunday	4 hours	$36

1. Jeff helped Mrs. Agnew till her garden but it didn't take him 4 hours. Mr. Summer didn't need help on Thursday.
2. He spent an extra hour working on Thursday than he did on Wednesday but he wasn't pruning hedges on either day.
3. On Sunday, he earned $8 more than he did when the day he was babysitting, which earned him $4 more than he earned from Mr. Compton.
4. Jeff made $20 from the job he spent 2 hours doing, which wasn't removing tree limbs.
5. Mr. Numen, who didn't ask him to rake leaves, paid him $32 but it didn't take him 3 hours. The job on Friday for Mrs. Fields took less time than the garden tilling job.
6. The hedge pruning job took him 3-1/2 hours to complete, a half hour longer than the job he did on Thursday. Jeff made $36 from the job he spent 4 hours doing, which was on Saturday.

Vince Demuy S

Bad breaks abound on Board 13 of Saturday's final set. In the Spector/Donn match, it was the story of "Out of the Frying Pan – Into the Fire".

In one room, John Kranyak chose to open a "very weak" 2S bid on the North hand. His partner, Vince Demuy showed hearts by bidding 3C and Kranyak muddled the waters by bidding his two-card diamond suit.

Jeff Wolfson had hoped to defend 2SX, but that ship had sailed. Jeff tried to recover by doubling the 3D bid.

Demuy retreated to 3H and Steve Garner fell from grace when he did not double. Eventually, declarer collected three hearts, three diamonds and a club for -200.

At the other table, Josh Donn disdained the 2S opener and passed in first seat.

Sheri Winestock S

Kevin Bathurst opened 1S on the East hand and Sheri Winestock overcalled 2H with the South hand. This was passed around to Bathurst who reopened with double.

West, John Hurd passed for penalties.

Depending on the defense, E/W would have collected 200 or 500 depending 2H doubled. Despite East's 1S opener, Josh Donn could not resist temptation. He rescued (?) to 2S!! Wolfson doubled and the defense took 8 tricks for +800 and 12 IMPs to Spector.

This was not the only match where Board 13 generated a lively swing. Two pairs played in 2HXX N/S for -1000.

Two pairs N/S went 1100 at the three level.

Everyone else had scores between -200 and -800.

No one made a contract on this deal!

Max Schireson emailed us on Friday evening, pointing out that nine of the fifteen pairs who played 4H were successful... despite having four top losers!

The universal opening lead was the CJ. Most Wests overtook with the CQ. Max and two other defenders made the key play of cashing the spade ace, before playing a second club, leaving nothing to chance. When West plays a second club at trick three, East ruffs and cashes the DA for the setting trick.

Unfortunately, and somewhat surprisingly, none of the East defenders found this play. Playing standard signals, East can recover by discarding the DT on the second club. This play should steer West to the diamond switch at trick four. Playing upside down signals, the D7 is not as easy to read.

Joel Wooldridge and David Grainger found an elegant defense to defeat the 4H contract. Grainger led the CJ, which held the trick. David switched to a spade. Wooldridge won his ace and attempted to cash the CQ. Grainger trumped(!) the club and cashed the diamond ace to defeat the contract and score a 12 IMP gain.

Note that some other East players switched to a low diamond when the CJ held at trick one. This play will work out so long as West wins the spade ace, cashes a club, and plays a diamond later in the hand. Unfortunately, it is not easy for West to judge that East underlead an ace at trick two.

Moral of the story: Playing IMPs, it is best to take the quick the defeat before something goes awry!

Also Friday evening, Amber Lin reported this nice defense by her teammates, Mike Massimilla and Lou Glasthal.

Sid Brownstein and Ed Davis playing for the Simson team bid to a reasonable, albeit slightly aggressive 3NT contract. 3NT was the contract at sixteen of the 32 tables. Thirteen declarers took nine or more tricks.

Glasthal, North, led the HJ showing the queen.

Declarer won the HA and led a club to the nine. Glasthal won his CK and switched to the spade deuce.

When declarer played low from dummy, Massimilla made the key play of inserting the S9!! This was allowed to hold the trick and Mike continued with the SK. When this also held the trick, Massimilla switched back to hearts. Brownstein won the HK and played a club. Massimilla won this trick and played a heart for the setting trick. 10 IMPs to Harris

Freeman must have been elated to see his partner open 1S on Board 58.

His 2NT response showed a limit raise plus. 3D promised shortness somewhere and extras?? 3H asked and 3S showed a non-specific void. 4C showed serious interest and the rest were cues.

It would seem like the disaster of 7S could have been avoided with an ace asking bid at some point. The good news for E/W is that a club lead stops even 6S from making.

Lebowitz led a heart. Finn won the ace in dummy. He pulled one trump and led a diamond to the jack. When that lost to the ace, he was able to ruff out the DQ and pitch both his clubs for down one.

The bad news for E/W was that their counterparts doubled Dinkin and Shuster in 6H and scored +800.

Rosenberg/Grossack explored for slam. 4NT asked for keycards. Rosenberg's Pass over the 5H interference showed an odd number of keycards.

When Shuster ventured 6H, Grossack doubled.

6H went light three vulnerable tricks. Rosenberg led a club. Zach inserted the ten and Dinkin won the king. Dinkin played a heart to the queen and ace and Zach exited with his singleton diamond. At this point the defense was poised with one club, one heart, and two diamonds for the three trick set.

Miriam Harris-Botzum and her brother, Marty, were the only pair to reach 3NT on Board 76 from Round 8 of the Round Robin.

South's 2C bid was explained as invitational Stayman. North's 2NT indicated a willingness to accept. 3C was puppet. 3D denied a five-card major and 3H showed four spades.

Thoughtful technique was required to bring home 3NT. Selen led the H9. Mark won his ace, cashed his DA and continued with the DQ.

Miriam won the king and led the SK from hand. Mark ducked. Miriam continued with the SJ, again ducked. She played the D6 to the nine and jack.

Aquino played the H6 to declarer's jack, overtaken by dummy's queen. The DT was cashed and the SQ was led from dummy. This was the position:
