Another Successful USBC in the Books...

Thanks to all the staff that made this tournament so easy and fun.

Thanks to McKenzie "Z" Myers for his steadfast leadership. With Ken Horwedel and Chris Wiegand, the directors did a wonderful job of keeping the event running smoothly and on time.

Thanks to the VG commentators (too many to mention.) Under the direction of Michael Kamil and Maya Alela, with the publicity on BW from Jan Martel, many more viewers benefitted from the daily "shows."

Thanks to the Appeals Panel volunteers. These players stand by not knowing if they will be needed or not and serve well into the night when necessary. The USBF appreciates your dedication.

Thanks to Maya Alela and Marie-France Benoit for the great job with hospitality ... especially under the Covid protocols. Everyone was well sated and happy.

Thanks to Suzi and Stan Subeck for producing, writing, and editing the Daily Bulletins. Thanks to Stan for his nightly delivery of hard copies to the site as well as his photos.

Thanks to Al Hollander for his technical expertise. He is always a delight to have as a commentator and having him on hand if something becomes a computer challenge is invaluable.

And, most of all, thanks to Jan Martel for her amazing skills at EVERYTHING! Jan is the glue that holds this organization together. She keeps everyone on their toes and she is the secret to our success.

See you next year when we have the "long" championship for USA2 and the Seniors, Mixed, and Women's.

Thanks to the players who return year after year. Your support and dedication are what brings us back!

Reprinted from yesterday's Bulletin with further analysis...

In the Nickell/Fleisher semi-final match, both tables declared 6D from the North hand. Both Easts led the H2. Not knowing about the foul heart break, both declarers cashed the CA and trumped a club in dummy. To score one spade, two clubs, and six trump tricks, declarer needs the hearts for communication. On this line of play, in both rooms, East was able to trump a heart to defeat the slam. The only line that works is to take the club finesse and that is inferior without any information.

In the Spector/Rosenthal match, Warren Spector and Gavin Wolpert reached 6D from the South hand after Spector opened 1D on his strong 1-4-4-4 distribution.

Willenken led the C3, picking up East's queen. Declarer could count seven tricks in hearts and clubs. He needed only five tricks from the trump suit. Spector drew three rounds of trumps ending in his hand. A club was ruffed in dummy and a heart was used to return to his hand. He drew the last trump and scored up the slam. N/S +1370.

In the other room of this match, Dwyer/Huang stopped in 3NT and took eleven tricks for N/S +660.

Ronnie Gerard, a well-respected expert player and truly great hand analyzer, wrote yesterday morning and pointed out the following:

Your analysis includes the comment "The only line that works is to take the club finesse and that is inferior without any information."

That is incorrect. The correct line is: Win the opening lead in dummy (neither declarer in Fleisher-Nickell did this), trump AK, then club ace and ruff, draw trumps and take the spade finesse. Had trumps broken 3-2, declarer could finish drawing trumps and take both the spade finesse and the club finesse, with pretty good chances of success. Thus the importance of preserving the heart jack for a late entry. Relying on hearts to break 3-3 (or long hearts with the long trumps) or trumps to break 3-2 while ruffing clubs was clearly inferior.

Ed. Note: Thanks to Ron Gerard for sending this to us. After reevaluating the situation, we agree whole-heartedly. As usual, you are spot-on! Ronnie is a member of the USBF Appeals Panel. He, like his late wife, Joan, is a valuable volunteer and we are gratified to his input and help.

Hand 1:

- North (Ralph Katz): ♠ QJ76, ♥ J97, ♦ 53, ♣ AJT5
- West (Warren Spector): ♠ A5432, ♥ AK, ♦ J9762, ♣ K
- East (Gavin Wolpert): ♠ T98, ♥ Q62, ♦ KT8, ♣ 7632
- South (Nick Nickell): ♠ K, ♥ T8543, ♦ AQ4, ♣ Q984

Katz led the CA and continued clubs. Declarer trumped and played a diamond to the ten. South won the DQ, cashed the DA and gave North a diamond ruff.

North exited with a club, trumped by declarer, who led a small spade toward dummy. Nickell won the SK and played another round of clubs.

Declarer trumped the club, cashed the SA and claimed seven tricks for N/S +300, a seemingly good plus position on what appears to be a part-score board.

1NT = Semi-forcing

2H = relay to 2S showing a weak spade preference or invite somewhere

But, sometimes, there is more to a hand than meets the eye...

- North (John Kranyak): ♠ QJ76, ♥ J97, ♦ 53, ♣ AJT5
- West (Eric Greco): ♠ A5432, ♥ AK, ♦ J9762, ♣ K
- East (Geoff Hampson): ♠ T98, ♥ Q62, ♦ KT8, ♣ 7632
- South (Vince Demuy): ♠ K, ♥ T8543, ♦ AQ4, ♣ Q984

In the other room, Demuy opened 1H, setting the stage for a very competitive auction.

Greco overcalled 1S and Kranyak bid 2H. This was passed around to Greco, who reopened with a double. Kranyak redoubled and Hampson bid 2S. This was passed around to Kranyak, who reopened with a double. Demuy bid 2NT with his singleton spade king and Kranyak raised to 3NT.

West led the D2 to East's king and declarer's ace. Declarer led the C9, covered by the king and won with dummy's ace. A spade was led from dummy and West allowed declarer's king to hold the trick. The CQ was cashed, and a club was led to dummy. Declarer played dummy's SQ, and West ducked again. The SJ drove out the ace and when the ST98 fell, declarer's S7 became the 9th trick. 3NTX scored N/S +550.

Four people traveled away from home to go to the First Night celebration in a different city for New Year's Eve this year. None of them had ever traveled for New Year's Eve and looked forward to the celebration with great enthusiasm. The four people all traveled to their chosen city using a different method of transportation. Determine the full name of each person, the city that they traveled to for First Night, their method of transportation, and their home city.

- Ralph Shepherd didn't travel to Boston for the First Night celebration. Mr. Leavit, whose first name wasn't Bernard, lived in New York.
- The person who lived in Boston traveled to a differ-

- ent city by bus. Mr. West traveled by train.
- The person who went to First Night in Chicago traveled by car.
- The person who lived in Chicago traveled to New York for First Night, but not by plane.
- Elliot, whose last name wasn't Prescott, didn't travel by car. Bernard didn't live in New York but he spent First Night in Atlanta.
- Mike, who didn't live in Atlanta, traveled by plane.

Meet the Players

Geoffrey Hampson was born October 11, 1968 in Toronto, Ontario. He learned to count points at the kitchen table on his father's knee at around six years old, but didn't start to play until high school. "A teacher taught the entire class how to play by issuing a printout of most basic rules," explained Geoff. "The class quickly became addicted, and I never found the cure."

Geoff has been a full time professional bridge player for over 20 years. Now married to Lindsay Pearlman, Geoff lives in Las Vegas with Lindsay and their Newfoundland dog, Atlas.

Geoff's first WBF medal came when he finished second in the 1991 World Junior Teams in Ann Arbor, Michigan, playing for Canada. A year later, he finished second in the Pan-American Games Open Teams in partnership with John Gowdy. After moving to the United States, Geoff added a gold medal in the 2010 Rosenblum and bronze medals in the 2005 Bermuda Bowl and 2014 Rosenblum.

Geoff won his first major domestic event at just 22 - the Canadian National Teams Championship, playing with John Gowdy. A year later, he claimed his first NABC title - the North American Swiss, playing with Mark Molson. He has since added 15 NABC titles to that one, including 2 Spingolds, the Reisinger and the Life Master Pairs.

Away from the table, Geoff is a serious movie buff and cyclist, who keeps in shape with time in the gym and on the golf course. His return to the Squash court was cut short when he ruptured his Achilles Tendon in 2013.

Geoff and his partner, Eric Greco, are members of the Nickell team.

Ed. Note:

With the delayed broadcasting, it is especially challenging to write up hands. If anyone has a hand of interest, please submit it to me at stan-subeck@prodigy.net. I welcome any human interest stories, news or gossip as well!!

Thanks.

Spector ruffed the jack with the HT. He exited his hand with the HQ to Katz’s king. Katz continued his attack on diamonds and when Spector ruffed in, Katz claimed 10 tricks... contract making. +620

It is easy to take the spade save at favorable once the suit has been bid. At the other table, Wolpert hoped to preempt the other team, but in the end, he preempted his team, making it impossible for them to fine their spade fit.

Kranyak led his singleton diamond. Demuy won the ace and cashed the king, Kranyak discarding a club. Demuy cashed the CA and gave Kranyak a diamond ruff with the S4. At this point, North/South could sit back and wait for the offside SK. Contract down 2. -300 N/S

With 7-5 distribution, it's hard to let the opponents play the hand. Strangely enough, diamonds were bid at the one, two, three, four and five levels. No other suit was bid naturally at this table. Against 5DX, Hampson cashed two high spades and continued with the S9. Declarer discarded a heart from dummy and Greco trumped with the D6. Greco played a heart to Hampson's ace. Hampson played another spade and Greco trumped with the DA for a three trick set scoring E/W +800.
